

Expotel Hospitality Names Cullen Stackpole, Regional Director of Operations

January 13, 2020

For Immediate Use

New Orleans, LA --

Expotel Hospitality is pleased to announce Cullen Stackpole as Regional Director of Operations.

Cullen has returned to work for Expotel hospitality since 2011 where he held the positions of GM of the Hampton Inn Metairie and the Sheraton Four Points Metairie.

Cullen brings back a combined 17 years of hospitality and hotel management experience to Expotel Hospitality. Prior to returning to Expotel, Cullen held General Manager positions at the Hilton Garden New Orleans Convention Center (287 Rooms), Hilton New Orleans St. Charles Ave (262 Rooms) and Cambria New Orleans Warehouse District (162 rooms). He started his hospitality career as a bellman and front desk agent with Fairmont Hotels' while in high school upon where he learned he could earn a degree doing what he was passionate about. His passion for problem solving, making people smile, work ethic, and making teams more effective and efficient allowed him to continue his hospitality career further. After 4 years of College achieving his Bachelor's Degree in Hotel Restaurant and Tourism Cullen returned to New Orleans to catapult his career in hotels. Cullen has worked for Fairmont, Hilton, Starwood/Marriott, Choice and Independent hotel Brands.

Cullen graduated from the University of Mississippi in 2001 with a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration from the School of Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism (HRT). In his Career he has achieved GM of Year for Interstate Hotels, Hotel and GM of Year for Choice International (Cambria Brands)

About Expotel Hospitality

New Orleans-based Expotel Hospitality represents several major hotel franchise companies and operates 19 hotels in six states: Texas, Florida, Tennessee and Louisiana. The company serves its owners, business partners, guests, associates and communities according to a well-defined set of core values, with emphasis on innovation, quality standards and strong commitment to positive hotel guest and employee work experiences.