About Expotel Hospitality

Expotel Hospitality was created by and for hotel owners seeking optimal cash flow from operations and maximum asset value creation. Now, as a third-party management company, Expotel retains the same owner-centric culture that was created when David Burrus, George Newton, III, and Darryl Berger, Sr. founded the firm in New Orleans in 2000. Empathy with ownership has enabled Expotel to deliver exceptional financial results to clients while building stronger relationships and maintain transparency for owners and their asset managers. With a dozen assets under management from Colorado to Florida and points in between, Expotel is small enough to deliver highly customized and attentive service to ownership groups yet has sufficient scale to support a sophisticated and highly experienced team of talented hospitality professionals in all essential disciplines from operations and sales to revenue management and accounting. Expotel and its senior team have won numerous awards managing flagged hotels of all of the major brands and for many prestigious, independent, boutique and lifestyle hotels. Expotel's evolution from owner to operator is "Hospitality Evolved".
